

Garment 209: Skirts Advanced Beginner

Need another skirt in your closet? We've gathered a collection of skirts perfect for those who are just starting to build their handmade wardrobe and will also appeal to those with more experience. The skirts feature options like zip, button or wrap closures and multiple lengths. All the patterns are a perfect match for medium weight fabrics and most work with drapery fabrics too.

The Holyoke is a breezy full-length skirt with roomy pockets and an easy fit, thanks to an elasticized back waist, faux button placket, and princess seams. Whether made up in a floaty rayon challis or sumptuous linen, the Holyoke will keep you looking cool all summer long.

The Fiore Skirt is a chic, high-waisted A-line skirt with just the right amount of flare and volume. A beginner-friendly pattern with multiple variations, this elevated basic has tons of outfit potential. Available in above or below the knee lengths, the Fiore Skirt has three views. Choose between a simple flared skirt with an invisible zipper at the back, an asymmetrical wrap skirt with a single hip pocket or a button front with curved patch pockets.

The Bernadette is a party in a skirt; pleated in the front - darted in the back! Plus, store your treasures in style with the super fun belt bag! The pattern includes the skirt in two length options; mini and midi. The belt is closed with D-rings and the bag features a zipper pocket, front pouch, and flap. This is a versatile and fun to sew pattern that you'll want to sew in every color. (In class we will be focusing on the skirt and will make the bag if time allows.)

The Reed is an A-Line skirt with multiple pocket and closure options. Views A and B feature an inset pocket and a button front closure. Views C and D have patch pockets and a center back invisible zipper. The Reed also has two length options: just above the knee and mid-calf.
