Sewing 202: Sewing with Silk
Advanced Beginner/Intermediate

Silk and other slinky fabrics feel amazing however can be frustrating to work with. We will go over how to handle these luxurious and tricky fabrics while making a silk pillowcase. Areas covered will include cutting, seam finishes and what pins and needles are best to use. During class we will also discuss additional techniques to give you a nice background of knowledge to tackle future projects.

Sleeping on a silk pillowcase provides some wonderful benefits for your skin and hair such as helping your skin retain moisture and avoid fine lines, in addition to helping avoid hair damage and tangles. As a bonus you will be able to make two pillows out of your yardage – one to keep as a backup or share with a good friend.

Prerequisite: Sewing 201 or equivalent experience.
